Many thanks and well done to all the children for dressing up in such imaginative costumes for our re-scheduled World Book Day. A lot of effort clearly went into many of these and it was a great opportunity for the children to think about books and their love of reading. Thank you also to all who contributed a 'pre-loved' book. Today's 'Books and Buns' sale has been a great money raiser, and the children have loved their new purchases!

Please see below a new date for the next school disco which will be run by the Friends. All children are invited to come along but please be aware that very young and more sensitive children may not enjoy it — the discos are very noisy! Please send your child only if you think this will be appropriate for them. Tickets are £2.50 to be bought in advance as usual.

Please also note below that the Easter mufti date has changed, and we have a new date for Sport Relief.
